March 19, 2017

For the last several weeks in the Young at Heart Class, we have been studying the book of Revelation, and what a great study we have had so far!! But we just got into chapter 2 and 3 looking at the 7 churches of Asia and what Jesus had to say to them. Sometimes I think we forget that He was not just talking to individual Christians but the whole congregation.

Here is a question for us at Ooltewah. If Jesus were to send us a letter, would we receive praise as Smyrna did or a rebuke like Laodicea? From our study it is very evident that Jesus knows all and we can't hide anything from Him. The scary thing is that some of the churches were doing right and great things but still were not carrying out the whole command of God. Let us be sure we are a family here at Ooltewah that would receive praise from Jesus and not a rebuke. Something to think about!

Love you all,

Denny

Words of Encouragement

Let us do as Jesus commands us to do in Matthew 22:37-39.

“Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind.”

If we do this first, then He will help us to do the next command:

“Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.”
