Comfort ...

Christians are not perfect, but we are forgiven! That is such a comforting thought ... not perfect, but forgiven.

Romans 8: 1, “There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.”

Romans 8: 1, “There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus,^[a] who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.”

1st John 1: 7, “But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.”

But what about those times of honest doubts, concerns, or even how we feel? Notice 1st John 3: 19 – 21, “And by this we know^[a] that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. ²⁰For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. ²¹Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God.” Did you catch it? “God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.”

As we think about men and women in the Bible, Christians – and even those before Jesus came to earth – those found in the hall of fame of Bible heroes in Hebrews 11 – they were not perfect! However, they give us encouragement – not perfect, but forgiven, as the blood of Jesus flowed backwards and forwards from the cross – forgiving those whose sins had been remembered year after year, and those who are baptized into Christ. “For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.” (Romans 15: 4)

Let’s be a going, growing congregation for the coming Savior!

Encouraging Scripture

35And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of Him that sent me.

39And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40And this is the will of Him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:35-40
