O Lord Give Me Courage

-Aaron Pope-

God Wants us to be courageous. He wants us to have resolve to do that which is right, no matter the circumstances. In fact, God wants us to be courageous so much that He supplies us with the very thing that gives us courage.

For example, when we examine the charge given to Joshua in the first chapter of that book, we find God imploring and admonishing the leader of His people to “be of good courage” no less than 3 times in the first 9 verses. No God doesn’t just leave Joshua to derive courage from whatever he so chooses. Instead, God gives Joshua the encouragement to be courageous and the blueprint by which he can be successful. Notice verse 7. God reminds Joshua that he has the law of Moses to read and observe and do. It is in the very words of God that He expects Joshua’s courage to arise. When we look further into God’s Word, we find example after example of those who displayed courage, bolstered and backed by the instruction found in the Word of God. Men like Noah, Moses, Daniel, Shadrack, Meshack and Abednego. Other like Josiah and Hezekiah and even Manasseh in his later years. Saints of the New Testament like Peter, Paul and Barnabas. The pages of God’s Word are filled with those who drew courage from that Word and lived lives of boldness and courage in the face of persecution and danger. Oh and look what they accomplished. Over and over again they did things they and others did not think possible. Today, let us be people of God’s Word. Let us be those who are courageous, no matter the circumstance. God still wants His people to do His will with boldness and courage! Be strong and of good courage!

Words of Encouragement

1Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

5I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

6For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

Psalm 32:1-7
