Poison Ivy

In April, I got something as a boy I wasn't bothered with but now I got it Poison Ivy, Poison Oak, Poison Something! I had it on my arm, noticed it on my wrist, then on the other arm, then another place on the other arm! I was red and itching. That little stuff sure is annoying.

Stop and think about how something we think is small, may become a big annoyance, a big irritation, , a big problem. “What does it hurt just missing that one service?” Then two, then three, before you know it missing several in a row.

“I’m going to tell you something I heard about brother or sister _____, but don’t tell anyone!” You guessed it, it was repeated and gossip spread. It seemed to be just a little thing.

“What does it matter, if I skip reading my Bible just a few days or nights in a row?” And before long, our Bible begins gathering dust until we take it to the next service.

Think about other problems in the church that began as a small thing, and could have been taken care of in a scriptural manner, but if it is not dealt with, grows into big problems.

Let’s be on guard against even the small matters that can become big problems. Let’s encourage one another.

Let’s be a going, growing congregation for the coming Savior!

The Whole Armour of God

10Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. 11Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. 13Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; 15And your feet shod with preparation of the gospel of peace; 16Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

I Peter 4:7-11
