Are Your Ears Open?

-Jim Lewis-

There are many fine and valuable tools to help us in our Bible study. A good Bible Concordance or a good Bible dictionary or just learning to read the Bible are tremendous helps. However, we must recognize that no matter how many helps we have and no matter how intelligent we may be, it is very possible that our ears are closed to what the Bible is actually saying to us. This is nothing new. The elite of the first century had the same problem.

“For this people’s heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted and I should heal them” (Matthew 13:15).

The Hebrew writer encountered the same problem with early Christians. In discussing Christ being called a high priest after the order of Melchisedec, he had “many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing” (Hebrews 5:11). Christians must be careful not to close their ears to God’s Word.

One of the most advantageous things we can do as we open our Bibles is to place all prejudice and preconceived notions about God’s Word in the background. We can then open our ears and grasp with vigor every truth, desiring to bring our lives into harmony with the scriptures.

Avoid Worldly Wisdom
18Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise.
19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness"; 20and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." 21Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours: 22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come, all are yours.
23And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.
1 Corinthians 3:18-23
