Learning To Finish

-Jim Lewis

Many begin the Christian life but never finish. For numerous reasons, they fall by the wayside and never enjoy the blessings of Christ in this life and deny themselves the blessings of Heaven in eternity. One of the great lessons we must learn in life is to finish the good things we begin.

I'm glad our Lord was not a quitter. His task was to finish the work His Father had given Him (John 4:34), and His works bear witness that the Father had indeed sent Him (John 5:36). At the end of our Lord's life, even on Calvary's cross, His final words were, "It is finished." He then bowed His head and gave up the ghost (John 19:30).

I'm thank ful that great servants like Paul did not turn their backs in the face of difficulty and adversity. Through their labors, the Gospel was taken to countless numbers of lost souls. Paul could say at the end of his life, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith" (II Timothy 4:7).

Brethren, let us not quit until our task is finished. "Let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith" (Hebrews 12:1-2)
