WHAT IS THE ROLE OF A FATHER?

-Roger Leonard-

The first role of a father is to love God with all his heart, soul, strength, and mind (Luke 10:27). Children need faithful Christian fathers. The second role is to love his wife, the mother of his children (Ephesians 5:25). The third is to love his children. A father loves his children when he sees to it that they are protected from harm, are properly provided for physically, and when he teaches them the righteous truths in God’s Word. A good father does this in two ways:

1) His life is an example of godliness. He faithfully attends the assemblies of the church and is an active and helpful member. He will not “provoke” his children “to anger” (Ephesians 6:4). A father’s example is a powerful teaching tool.

2) He brings up his children “in the discipline and instruction of the Lord” (Ephesians 6:4). This is his responsibility, and children need this so they can be faithful adults and parents some day.

What is the role of children? First, “....obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right” (Ephesians 6:1). Why? Because the Lord tells us to! I have always told my children that when they disobey their mother or me, they disobey the Lord first because He told us to instruct them. Secondly, this obedience comes with a “promise” that our lives will be better (Ephesians 6:2,3).

As parents, we obey the Lord in a very important way when we lead our children according to His Word. As children, we obey the Lord when we obey and honor our parents.
