Nice vs. Kind

A popular snack bar's advertisement caused me recently to ponder the difference between these two adjectives. "Nice" conforms. "Kind" transforms. Niceness is found in words. Be nice. Hold the door for the person behind you. Please don't interrupt when someone else is speaking. Kindness goes deeper.

Kindness is rooted and grounded in compassion. The word nice is not found in the Bible. Yet kindness is a Fruit of the Spirit to be spread (Gal 5: 22-23). Niceness usually stands by to do little. Kindness causes us to roll up our sleeves and go to work to make the world better. Niceness seeks approval and is concerned about one's reputation. Kindness is a virtue (II Peter 1: 5-9). It seeks no reward or praise and speaks to character. Niceness is being careful not to cause offense.

Kindness is stopping offenses from ever happening. The nice person asks if you are cold. The kind person sees you are cold and gives you his coat. In I Corinthians 13, we learn love is kind, does not insist on its own way, does not dishonor others, and is not self-seeking. We make choices everyday in different situations regarding how we choose to treat people. Let us humble ourselves to be examples of meekness and kindness. Jesus teaches kindness and compassion in Luke 10, where only one of three individuals provide an act of kindness or compassion. Jesus said, "Go and do likewise."

For several weeks we have been asking that you help us help those children that are less fortunate, by donating school supplies or by assisting financially. WOW!! You have really stepped up and shown what a loving and giving congregation Ooltewah truly is.

Just one more request... we need your help in filling the backpacks after the meal today.

Again, thank you for the spirit of generosity you have shown. School supplies and backpacks may not mean a lot to some, but to others, they mean everything!!
