I once read an article entitled “Why you can’t afford your wife as a mother”. Obviously, the article caught my attention and really was an eye opener. Now that we have Maylin and Iyla, I find that the article was more than true. I cannot afford Susan as a mother. When you think about all the hats that mothers wear throughout the week, how much would that add up to if you were paying someone to do the same thing? Salary.com put out a calculator to put a number to that. It reported that it would cost somewhere in the neighborhood of over $110,000 a year to pay a mother. It really makes me appreciate my mother and Susan as well as all the other moms out there that much more.

Long ago King Lemuel thought about this subject. He didn’t have access to Salary.com’s calculator, but he arrived at a similar conclusion about the worth of a godly woman. “Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies” (Proverbs 31:10). He also points to some of the many hats such a wife and mother wears: seamstress (vv. 13,19), purchasing agent (v. 14), cook (v. 15), business manager (v. 16a), gardener (v. 16b), benefactress (v. 20), wardrobe manager (v. 21), and teacher (v. 26). The conclusion naturally follows upon consideration of all that a godly mother does: “Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her ... a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised” (Proverbs 31:28,30).

Not all mothers are worthy of such praise, for not all fear the Lord. But there are many of us who can say, “My mother is described well by this beautiful passage. “Let us not take for granted the gifts God has given us. On Mothers’ Day 2019; may we do our own calculations and praise those women whose words and deeds have taught us to follow the Lord.” ‘Honor your father and mother,’ which is the first commandment with promise: ‘that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth’” (Ephesians 6:2,3).

Love you all,
Denny
