The Holiday Blues

It's that time of year again..... crowds of shoppers, family and friends gather, festive parties and brightly wrapped packages are tied with bows. The holidays can be a depressing time of year for some. Here are a few things that may help you to combat those "holiday blues".

- 1.) Pray often about the things that upset you. Disappointments, sadness and anger can occur anytime of the year. Don't allow sad thoughts to take you captive.
- 2.) Choose carefully the holiday activities you attend. Participate in the ones that have special meaning to you if you can. But if attending those things is just too much, then don't. Don't feel like you have to.
- 3.) When a memory comes and you feel like crying, then cry. Crying can sometimes help you feel better.
- 4.) Tell family and friends when you feel sad, lonely, anxious or stressed. Allow those that love you to help you through the hard times.
- 5.) Trust God to bring you comfort. Draw near to Him. Talk to Him. Praise Him and meditate on His word.
