Hello brothers and sisters,

(letter received 12/28/19)

The year is coming to an end and I am looking forward to the new school year. I hope you are doing well. I am enjoying my Christmas break for two weeks right now. I have not been bored at all. I have been spending time with my adoptive family and one of the elder's and his family from my new home at the Karn's congregation. I have not received all of my grades yet, but I made an A in my Homiletics class, which was my favorite class last quarter. I want to again thank you for your financial support while I am here. It means the world to me. I will keep you all updated.

In Christ,
Brad Kilgore
