Words To Ponder.....

"My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up" (Ps 5:3).

There is just something about the morning time. It's almost as if we rediscover God every morning, and in a very real way, we do (Lam 3:23). Many of God's people understood the value of "morning". Job rose up early to offer sacrifices for his family (Job 1:5), Jesus rose up early to pray (Mk 1:35), and the Psalmist desired to hear God's loving kindness in the morning (Ps 143:8). Obviously, the way we hear God today is by giving attendance to His Word (Heb 1:1; Col 3:16; 1 Tim 4:13).

There is eternal benefit in carving out time in the morning to study and pray. It may require sacrificing bedtime and rising earlier, but what better way to start a new day that was not promised to us!
