Words To Ponder....

“Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth” (Prov 27:1).

As we consider our calendars, we likely have dates and days filled throughout the year. Our minds are consumed with thoughts of things that fill our calendars tomorrow, this week, this month, etc. The structure of American life demands that we be “busy little bees”.

In the business of the day-to-day demands of life, don't forsake “today” for “tomorrow”. Sure, we plan for tomorrow but if not careful, we can allow tomorrow to burden us today (Mt 6:34). Always remember that tomorrow never comes, for when it does, it is called today.

Be focused to do all to the glorify of God today. Show love, mercy, compassion, forgiveness, and benevolence today. Tell someone about Christ and His glorious church today. Don't wait until tomorrow, it is not promised to us (James 4:13-15).

Eric D. Garner

Congratulations to Laura Cupp for recently passing the State Praxis test for Educators. We're very proud of you Laura!!

Brethren,

This quarter is almost over. I am amazed at how much I have learned. It is not always easy to take in all the knowledge that is being given to us here. I have come to realize how little I really know. I am not downplaying my previous knowledge in any way, only giving credit where it is due. The faculty here has years of experience. They know their Bible and it is a great privilege to sit at their feet.

Next quarter I will have an opportunity to teach an auditorium class here at Karns. I am looking forward to it. I am getting prepared for finals next week. My classes are all going great right now. The group of guys here at this time are eager to learn. It is great to be in an environment like this. Thank you all for your moral and financial support. May God bless you all.

In Christ,
Brad Kilgore
