Psalm 9

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will recount all of your wonderful deeds. I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High. My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before you. For you have upheld my right and my cause; you have sat on your throne, judging righteously —Psalm 9:1-4

We all love success in our lives. Whether that is making a sports team at school, to getting a promotion at work, or just something great happening in our lives. Success makes us happy and brings on a feeling of accomplishment. This is what David is feeling here in this Psalm. He has had success on the battlefield. His enemies were falling before him.

David realized that the victory was not his though. He didn't use the occasion to boast; instead, he aimed the praise where it should be, at the Almighty Lord. He was happy about the success and the victory, but he recognized the big picture. That God was working not only in his personal life but also in the world. He lived in confidence because he knew God was sitting on His throne holding firm the world. Therefore, nothing was out of control.

May we realize that whether we have success or loss, God is still in control and on His throne and we have confidence in Him through all things exist and are made! May we never allow our pride to put ourselves up on a pedestal but humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God.
