June Visitation Report

“There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil” (Job 1:1).

Wow, imagine if our names were in the place of Job's!

“...whose name was Eric; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.”

Well, that never will be me because I'm not perfect. But wait, neither was Job!

If we view “perfect” as “sinless” we will sell ourselves short. Yes, Christ and the apostles said we must be "perfect" (Mt 5:48; 2 Cor 13:11; Col 1:28); however, "perfection" is better defined as a current state of obedience.

Certainly, Job had sinned before as we have (Job 13:23-28; Rom 3:23), and we will likely stumble in the future (1 Jn 1:8-2:2), but perfection is found in obedience to God's Word and commitment to righteousness (Job 28:28; 2 Tim 3:16,17).

So yes, we CAN be mentioned with Job and all the faithful in the canon of scripture. Don't sell yourself short!
