“Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ...But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. For every man shall bear his own burden” (Gal 6:2,4,5).

When Cain slew Abel, God asked Cain about Abel's welfare and Cain replied, “I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?” (Gen 4:9).

According to our lesson text, we in-fact are our brother's keeper. As spiritual family members, we care for one another physically, but ultimately, our care and concern for one another is eternal. This is why we pray for, encourage, edify, study with, assemble with, and exhort one another.

Though we are our brother's keeper, Paul clearly states that we are not absolved from personal responsibility (Phil 2:12).

Yes, our earnest desire is to help each other get to heaven; however, know that we all must stand before Christ alone accountable for how we've handled our own responsibility (2 Cor 5:10).

Eric D. Garner

The elders have asked that ALL purchases requiring reimbursement over $100 be approved by the elder or deacon over that area of work, prior to the purchase being made. The deacon's areas of work are listed on the front of the bulletin. If you're unsure who to ask, please direct your questions to one of our elders. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Also, Vol. 1 Quarterly New Letter from the elders can be picked up in the foyer.
