There Is Joy In Christianity

Can people tell by the way that we live that we are Christians or must we tell them we are, or should I say, claim to be? I once heard of a man who heard the truth for the first time and obeyed it. He could hardly wait until the next morning to share what he had learned with the man who worked right beside him. They had worked side by side for a number of years. When he began to talk with the man about what he had learned and obeyed, the man stopped him and said, "I have been a member of the church for nearly thirty years." Maybe he had, but what was he showing others around him? The man who worked next to him for years did not know his friend was a Christian.

Jesus let us know that when we let our light shine, others will see our good works. We cannot keep our Christianity hidden. "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 5:14-16)

The elders have asked that ALL purchases requiring reimbursement over $100 be approved by the elder or deacon over that area of work, prior to the purchase being made. The deacon's areas of work are listed on the front of the bulletin. If you're unsure who to ask, please direct your questions to one of our elders. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Also, Vol. 1 Quarterly New Letter from the elders can be picked up in the foyer.
