"Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares" (Heb 13:2).

Many may have wondered, after reading this passage, what it means. Well, it means what it means. In the age of the miraculous, angels would manifest themselves by the will of God. It is possible the writer is referring to Genesis 18.

I want to focus on "entertaining strangers". Have you ever "people watched"? It is fascinating to see so many people going about their day in their "bubble". However, they all have a story and I always wonder, "What is their story?"

No matter what our individual stories are, there is a story that can connect us all as strangers and that is the gospel story. No matter who you are, the gospel story will fit your life story (Jn 3:16).

The next time you meet a stranger, ask them their story and if it is absent the gospel story. Tell them that story!
