"Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay" (Jer 20:9).

Living in a world of sinners can be overwhelming for Christians. We know our responsibility to teach others the gospel (Mk 16:15,16), but when the audience is hostile to the message, it can be disheartening.

Jeremiah is known as the prophet of gloom and doom. His message was one of captivity. Judah had forsaken God and would reap the consequences but instead of repenting, they persecuted Jeremiah for the message. Jeremiah figured he would just quit preaching, but he came to his senses.

Sometimes we want to wash our hands of this world then in the next breath pray that God's message save those same people. Remember, God uses people, and we are His "people". The world is saved by preaching (1 Cor 1:18-23). Keep preaching!

Eric D. Garner
