Bethel church of Christ

After being there last week for a 92 year old soul to put Jesus on in baptism, I have been thinking on a question. Why do so many souls put off the most important decision resulting in their eternal home?

One of the biggest answers is procrastination. It is one of the biggest flaws and greatest enemies for many of us. We don't want to practice it but still seem to find other things to do, or reasons to put it off for a better time in the future. We have become professionals at convincing ourselves that we are too tired, busy, distracted or whatever that "it" is right now to do the thing that needs to be done.

We do this in our lives everyday it seems, but in no other area of life is there more danger in procrastination than in our spiritual walk with God. To put off our obedience to God, is to place our eternal home at risk. The pressing need for man is to recognize our need for salvation and to receive the redemption that God is holding for us through Christ. But we are only promised right now!!

"Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." 2 Cor. 6:2

What is holding you back from having a better spiritual walk with God?
