"Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places" (Num 33:52).

We've all heard this saying (or a variation of it), "Almost only counts in horseshoes and grenades." In Numbers 33, God instructed Israel with the force of the word "all". "All" includes everything and excludes nothing. Simply put, "all" means "all". There were consequences if they didn't observe "all" (v 55).

With God, 99.9% just will not do. Jesus didn't go "99.9%" to the cross. We must be committed to going "all" the way with God (Lk 14:33). When it comes to total devotion to God, we can't "sit on the fence" because Satan owns the fence.

In every area of life, let us give 100% commitment to God because He gave no less in His commitment to us.

Eric D. Garner
