“I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive” (Acts 20:35).

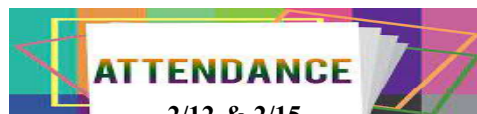

Brain research proves that exponentially more amounts of dopamine and serotonin (chemicals responsible for happiness) are released when we “give” than when we “receive”.

Have you ever noticed how you feel watching a loved one open gifts you have given? Or, how you feel when you perform a kind deed for someone?

In His omniscience, God already explained to us that there is intrinsic value in “giving”, that’s why He loves a cheerful giver (2 Cor 9:7).

I’ve learned over the years that God uses people to bless people. Our acts of humility in denying the gifts of others, does two things: 1.) denies the blessing of God and 2.) robs that person of the intrinsic value of giving.
