Ladies Day

East Ridge church of Christ
March 11th
Speaker: Pauli Posey

“Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me” (Jn 13:8).

Our dear brother Peter, in his youth, was an impetuous one (Mt 14:29; 17:4; 26:32,75; Jn 18:10). Peter lacked humility and was full of pride (Lk 22:31). In today’s text, Peter displayed “false humility” which can be seen in rejecting assistance though clearly needed.

It is difficult relying and leaning on others. We are taught to be strong and self-supportive (I’m preaching to the proverbial choir here). However, true humility is realizing our deficiencies and allowing others to help us in those, whatever they may be.

I love that in his older life, Peter would write 1 Peter 5:5. I’m sure looking back at his younger self, Peter would have exhibited more humility and willingness to accept assistance where needed.

Where can we display more humility in our lives today (James 4:6)?
