“Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them” (Judges 15:11).

Samson displayed some childish tendencies, like being a “spoiled brat” (14:1-3).

Samson was also impulsive and vengeful (14:9; 15:3-5) but he said something interesting here, “As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.”

Samson was right according to the Law (Ex 21:24; Lev 24:20; Deut 19:21). However, Christ changed some aspects of the Law (Mt 5:38-42). Christians do not allow our anger to manifest itself in wrath no matter how right and justified it may seem (Rom 12:14-21).

It has been said that “revenge is a dish best served cold” but for the Christian, “revenge is a dish best served not at all”!
