Keep up the good work!

“And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone” (Mt 14:23).

We wear many different hats that entail others depending on us from professional to spiritual to domestic. Whether we are a manager/supervisor, elder, deacon, preacher, coach, parent, etc., many depend on us in some capacity or another.

Often, we diligently pour into others while finding ourselves dehydrated. I recall a time I was pouring all I had into the church. A dear sister who I love like a mother told me, “Son, your first ministry is the health of yourself and your family.”

As leaders (parents are leaders) we may feel guilty taking time for ourselves, but the question is, “Are we better than David and Jesus?” David encouraged himself (1 Sam 30:6) and Jesus rested (Mt 8:24) and took alone time.

Take care of yourselves (Eph 5:29).
