“And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the Lord was with him” (1 Sam 18:14).

Four times in this chapter we find that David behaved himself wisely (5,14,15,30). This is an interesting piece of info. We see David “behave wisely” in that he continued to honor Saul though Saul hunted him like a wild animal attempting to kill him because he knew God ordained David to be king instead of Jonathan. God delivered Saul into David’s hand twice, but David would not stretch forth his hand against the Lord’s anointed.

Just because we have “the right” to do a thing and may be justified in our actions, does not mean we "should" do it. Let us remember that as Christians, we must “behave ourselves wisely” (Ps 101:2; Eph 5:15).

The world is looking at us and measuring our “claims” against our speech and actions (1 Pt 4:15,16).

Eric D. Garner
