I have a book in my library called, "If I died last night". This is a short book that is fictional written from a first-person narrative. It is about a man who dies and wakes up in torment. When this happens, he can't believe or understand why he was in torment and not paradise. Then he ends up meeting different people that he knew in his life and then it fast forwards to judgment day. After reflecting on this book especially after the past few weeks of seeing that we are just a breath away from entering into eternity, one scripture is at the top of the list for me.

"I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear Him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him! (Luke 12:4-5)"

It doesn't matter how many people we please here on Earth, or how many friends we have. It doesn't matter how successful we are or how many good things we have done. Nothing matters in this life then for us to FEAR God and OBEY Him (Eccl. 12:13-14). Because when it is said and done with our last breath here on Earth, we WILL face Him (Heb. 9:27), and He will judge us fairly and be just about our life! Are you ready for that last breath? If not let's get you ready.

I Love You ALL!
