“And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four” (Mk 2:3).

The atheist loves to use “the problem of evil and human suffering” to “disprove” God. However, there is great benefit in this (Rom 8:28).

Surely this gentleman suffered with palsy and felt some evil happened to him, but us consider for a moment. What if this man WAS NOT stricken with palsy; would he have ever met the Christ? While we can never know that answer, what we DO know is that the reason we have Mark 2:3 is because this man HAD palsy.

Family, evil and human suffering has destroyed so many “physical” lives while at the same time driving many souls to Christ and saving their “spiritual” lives, which, at the consummation of all things, is the only thing that will matter.

I do not pretend to know everything about God and His divine will. What I DO know, is that God loves His creation (Jn 3:16) and does not desire anyone to be lost (2 Pt 3:9).
