“Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings,” (Ps 17:8).

Have you ever been to the circus or at a halftime sporting event and the performer is on a unicycle spinning various plates on various sticks? It is a feat to say the least.

I image that is what God feels like as He holds this world together while also caring for us (I use hyperbole and understand God does not really feel like this.) (Col 1:17; Heb 1:3; Phil 4:19). At times it may feel as if we’ve been lost in God’s “to-do list”.

Just know that you are the “apple” of God’s eye. You have His full and complete attention (Mt 10:20). He did not send His Son to die for us just to let us go it alone. He will be with us until the end (Mt 28:20; Heb 13:5)!
