“But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day” (2 Pt 3:8).

Imagine being Jewish waiting on the coming Messiah based on Genesis 3:15. Or Noah waiting on a flood based on Genesis 6:13. Or Abraham waiting on the promise based on Genesis 12:1,2. The list goes on and on.

Consider the woman with the issue of blood (Lk 8:43,44)? She dealt with this issue for 12 years and was instantly healed in a moment by simply touching the hem of the Master’s garment. I imagine she prayed and cried to the Lord daily to deliver her from her ailment, yet to no avail.

Time and again, God’s promises are delivered in His perfect time, which 100% is not our time. As we navigate this life of peaks and valleys, let us not grow weary (Gal 6:9), but let us wait patiently on the Lord (Isa 40:31), knowing that He has NEVER broken a promise (Titus 1:2; 2 Pt 3:9).
