“Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,” (Heb 12:1).

Christianity is not a religion of “right now”, it is a religion of waiting. Christianity is not a “sprint” but a “marathon” that must be run with patience. As much as we are people of “Are we there yet?!", growth and learning take place in the journey.

The journey is filled with varying victories and defeats, trials and triumphs, sadness and happiness, delight and disappointment, yet therein is where we learn just who God is.

Faithful Christians know the destination, now, sit back and enjoy the ride!
