“I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing” (Jn 15:5).

Wow! When I was in the world, I really had nothing that defined me, other than sin (Rom 8:5). Now that I am “in Christ”, He has given my life definition! Paul told the Athenians that even one of their own heathen poets understood this (Acts 17:28).

Outside of Christ, our lives are very sad commentaries. Our lives mean nothing and, in and of ourselves, we can not do anything about it in the grand scheme of things (Isa 64:6).

However, “in Christ” we can do ALL THINGS that God expects and requires of us to make sure that our lives mean something and are secured eternally (Phil 4:13).
