“For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ” (Gal 3:27).

Have you ever heard someone attempt to justify their position with God with the phrase, “God knows my heart.” It is true that God knows our “heart” (Mk 2:6-8; Rev 2:23). But what is it that our “hearts” reveal to God? Based on Mt 15:18-19, it is not in our best interest that God “knows our hearts.”

I am terrified that God knows my heart. Honestly, I wish He did not but there is hope for those who are like me. We do not have to be fearful of God knowing our heart, because if we have obeyed the gospel being baptized into Christ, when God looks at their heart, He sees His Son!
