“And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord. And, behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the Lord was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice” (1 Kings 19:11-12).

Elijah was discouraged by Israel's sin. He felt like he was the only righteous person left in Israel (10). Elijah may have wanted God to just wipe Israel of the face of the earth seeing He is omnipotent (wind, earthquake, fire). The Lord was NOT in those things, rather, He was in the small still voice. How often have we looked at the plight of the world and prayed, “Lord come quickly!” How we wished God would rain fire from heaven on those who commit atrocities against their fellow man. Fortunately, God is not like man. The Lord does not want to destroy His creation; He wants to save us (1 Kgs 18:37; 2 Pt 3:9).

Don't give up on God's ability to save the souls of men. Hear His small still voice inviting them to salvation saying, “Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest” (Mt 11:28).
