“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim 2:15).

I have been called “Reverend” several times in my entire tenure as a gospel preacher. I am amazed that even those who consider themselves to be “religious” do not know that no man in the Bible was ever called “Reverend”. In Psalm 111, the Psalmist highlights the nature and workings of God and in verse 9, he defined all he had just addressed with the word “reverend”.

Unfortunately, this phenomenon is also prevalent in the Lord's church. In our text, Paul told a gospel preacher, who could perform miracles, to study to handle God's Word rightly.

Here is an example of the importance of studying to rightly divide: Judas hanged himself (Mt 27:5) and Jesus said, “Go and do thou likewise” (Lk 10:37). Without "rightly dividing", this misapplication will not bode well.
