“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever” (Heb 13:8).

Charles Sheldon’s book In His Steps: What Would Jesus Do positioned Christ in various social interactions and asked, “What would Jesus do in ‘this’ situation?”

Though he had great intent on highlighting the potential actions of Christ, we do not ask “what 'would' He do”, but “what 'DID' He do”!

There is comfort in knowing we serve a God that does not change like us (Heb 6:17,18). He is The constant in an ever changing world! The same God whose Son washed men’s feet in humility is the same loving God we serve today!

When our minds “wonder” about God, let us not forget that we have His mind (Phil 2:3-5) and the gospels that highlight the life He lived on earth.

Know that we serve the same God that spoke with Adam and Eve, that made promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, that parted the Red Sea for Moses, and that sent His Son to die on a rugged cross!
