During the month of March, we will be collecting items for the youth to make snack packs to be passed out at the Emma Wheeler Homes. Please make sure these items are individually wrapped and be sure not to bring anything that can melt. A list of suggested items can be found on the bulletin board in the hallway.

“Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;” (Rom 12:10).

Times of stress are the best tests of character (1 Pt 1:6,7); however, these times also make us long and appreciate times of peace (Rev 14:13). One reason we pray for those in authority, regardless of their moral or religious position, is not necessarily for their benefit, but for ours. We pray for them that we might live quiet and peaceable lives (1 Tim 2:1-2).

God has allowed us to have those “peaceful” places. Though many may not have “multiple” peaceful places, for Christians, there should be at least ONE peaceful place, and that is being with God’s people.

Long days at work and long weeks being with people of the world should make us long for times we can assemble with God’s people and worship Him in spirit and in truth! Personally, I certainly “prefer” being with my brothers and sisters in Christ than with people of the world. In stressful times, we should run TO the church, not AWAY from the church.
