“And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this,” (Ezra 9:13).

After Israel left Babylonian captivity, they had rededicated themselves to the Lord; however, not many years after, Israel committed transgression against the Law of Moses (9:1,2,10-12). Ezra mourned and prayed to God because he realized that after everything Israel had done against God, He was still better to them than they deserved!

In His infinite love, when He should've killed us a thousand times over, God sent His Son (Rom 5:8). It is tempting for us to take God's mercy for granted (Rom 6:1-2). Let us do good by God because He has always done good by us.

When people ask how you are doing, know that we all are doing “better than we deserve!”
