“Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die” (2 Sam 12:14).

David had committed the egregious transgressions of adultery and murder. David would lie with Bath-sheba, Uriah’s wife, then orchestrate the murder of her husband Uriah. The Lord sent Nathan the prophet to reveal David’s transgressions (1). In our text, Nathan concluded his speech to David.

As God’s people, we must realize that the actions we take, the things we participate in, the lives we live, and the ways in which we react are being observed by the world. It is by our lives that many people will judge our Lord. In assault, the world is anxious to launch the phrase, “And I thought he/she was a Christian!”

It is vitally important that we “think” before we “act” lest our actions cause the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme (Prov 13:16; 22:3).
