Teen Singing / September 8th / LaFayette Church of Christ

“My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: And my lips shall utter knowledge clearly” (Job 33:3).

After Job’s discourse with his three friends Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar end, a young man named Elihu found an opportunity to speak about Job’s situation. While Elihu provided some sound propositions, he was still wrong about Job’s situation.

What we learn from Elihu is that our opinions are not the standard of truth no matter how good the intentions or pureness of heart. God’s Word must be the standard of truth (Rom 3:4; Jn 17:17). While social media platforms are good for many things, unfortunately these platforms allow many, with superb intentions and pure hearts, to disseminate harmful and condemning ideas consumed by potentially millions of people. Let us to be careful what we say (Mt 12:36), who we hear (1 Kings 12:1-11), how we hear (1 Th 5:21), and what we hear (1 Jn 4:1).
