“That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises” (Heb 6:12).

When we study the Word of God, there are a few times we encounter what I like to call the “trifectas”. For instance, 1 Th 1:3 – work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope. 1 Cor 13:13 – faith, hope, and love.

We know that God has great and precious eternal promises for those that love Him (1 Cor 2:9; 2 Pt 1:4; 3:9). However, notice the natural response to God’s promises from those that love Him: Faith believes and obeys because of the promises, Hope anticipates the promises, and Patience quietly awaits the promises.

God’s promises are not man’s promises because His promises guide us to heaven. When God makes a promise, we can bank on it because He cannot lie (Titus 1:2)!
