“Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God” (2 Cor 1:3,4).

Sometimes the righteous ponder why they experience various trials, heartaches, and pains in this life. Job asked those very same questions regarding evil and human suffering. The Word of God is not silent on this subject as we see from the text. One of the reasons we suffer and ride the rollercoaster of emotion is so that we can comfort those who begin the journey we have already traveled.

We have a God given responsibility to comfort others in their time of distress. God never asks us to do something He has not already done. We comfort others because in our times of distress, God comforted us.

Can you think of anyone who needs comforting today?
