“It is of the LORD’s mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. 23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness” (Lam 3:22,23).

Jeremiah petitioned God to look on his affliction (19). The prophet of God had experienced much in his time preaching God’s Word to as “stiffnecked” people (Acts 7:51). The Jews’ disobedience would surely send them into captivity (20:4). Jeremiah anguished over Judah’s judgment, but then, he remembered God’s character of mercy, compassion, and grace. It was by God’s compassions that Judah had survived as long as they did. Though they would go into captivity, God promised that it would not be permanent (29:10).

Life can be a refining fire at times (1 Pt 1:6-7), but every day that the Lord allows us to see is another day of blessed mercy. Our God does not operate in borrowed blessings, but He proves Himself anew every day! Whatever hardships come, think on the new mercies of God (Phil 4:8)!
