"And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you" (Josh 3:5).

For Israel to be the nation that God would have them be, they needed the Lord, His Law, and a land. They were so close! They had the Lord and His Law and now, under the leadership of Joshua, Israel was getting ready to enter the Promised Land (Gen 26:3; 28:13; Ex 3:7,8). God was active in the affairs of the Israelites; however, they needed to "sanctify" themselves and prepare for the Lord's work!

How often have we attempted to force a desired outcome in our lives only to get in our own way and be our own worst enemy? Sure, we have desires in this life, and we should, but in concert, we should also trust in the providential will of God because if what we seek is according to His will, then He will give us the desires of our heart (1 Jn 5:14,15; Ps 37:4). Let us prepare for the Lord's work by living righteously, operating authentically, and putting ourselves in position to take advantage of opportunities when they present themselves rather than forcing desired outcomes.

Remember, the disciple is not above the Master, so if Jesus understood that the Father's will must supersede His will, let us understand the same (Mt 26:39; Lk 6:40).
