NEW ADDRESS: Larry and Cheryl Judd 330 Courtney Cove Henderson, TN 38340

“These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth” (Heb 11:13).

The Old Testament worthies mentioned in Faith's Hall of Fame (Heb 11) are examples of those who had their gaze properly fixed. By no means does this chapter pretend that those characters exemplified sinless perfection – they did not (Heb 12:1). However, they understood that physical life was not the “end game”.

Because of the stresses and demands of this life, we are conditioned to believe (often unintentionally) that this life is all there is. Even if we don't say it, often we act like it. Let us ALWAYS remember that this earthly life is not the end. We were not built to stay here. We are just pilgrims journeying from earth to eternity (Phil 3:20; Col 3:1-2).
