“Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them” (Mt 7:20).

If there is one thing I have learned, it is that people will always judge actions above words. James discussed this idea. We have heard sayings such as, “It is easier said than done. Actions speak louder than words. No one cares how much you know until they know how much you care.” There is truth in these statements. Jesus said we will know what a person “thinks” by the way they “act” and not by what they say (Lk 6:46).

In various aspects of our lives, what we do versus what we say does truly matter. David’s sin with Bathsheba is an example (2 Sam 12). The actions David took to satisfy his own lustful desires gave the Lord’s enemies occasion to blaspheme. How we act as Christians can (and does) cause unbelievers to form a view of God – proper or improper. They will judge God based on how we act. As Christians, do our words match our actions?
